SEC ENVIRONMENTAL FILM FESTIVAL TO INSPIRE ACTION AND SPARK CHANGE

Singapore, May 2025 - From 5 to 7 June 2025, the SEC Environmental Film Festival makes its return in Singapore, a three-day celebration of powerful storytelling with a purpose. Curated to ignite conversation and inspire action, the festival brings together a selection of compelling films that confront the urgent environmental challenges facing our world today.

Organised by Singapore Environment Council (SEC) in partnership with the Singapore Film Society (SFS), the festival is more than a cinematic experience; it's a movement. The festival seeks to educate, engage, and empower individuals and communities to become stewards of the planet.

Proceeds from the festival will fund SEC's outreach programmes in schools, cultivating the next generation of environmentally conscious citizens and promoting sustainable living practices from an early age. As the SEC is a registered charity, all movie ticket sales are eligible for tax rebates

The SEC Environmental Film Festival is not just an event. It's a call to action.

Why A CRACK IN THE MOUNTAIN?

The tourism industry is one of the most important economic activities for any country. But how do we negotiate to what expense we forgo environmental degradation for economic needs? This documentary raises important questions we need to ask ourselves about the environment.

Why Future Council?

We always mention that we need to conserve the environment for the future generation and how do we actively involve them in important decision making for environmental considerations? Future Council may provide the directions to how we can work hand in hand with the future generations to find meaningful ways to tackle environmental issues.

ABOUT THE ORGANISERS

ABOUT SINGAPORE ENVIRONMENT COUNCIL

The Singapore Environment Council (SEC) is a non-profit, non-governmental organisation (NGO) that catalyses action towards environmental sustainability via standards setting, consumer action, training and education. We work with the public, private and people sectors to influence thinking on sustainability issues and drive positive change.

We are a United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) accredited NGO, and the only Singapore member of the Global Ecolabelling Network (GEN), the non-profit association of leading eco labelling organisations worldwide. We are an approved Institution of Public Character (IPC) with tax exemption status to donors.

For more information, please visit: <https://www.sec.org.sg/index.html>

ABOUT THE SINGAPORE FILM SOCIETY

In its 60+ years, the Singapore Film Society (SFS) has collaborated with a wide range of partners from theatrical distribution, diplomatic missions, academic and cultural institutions to present the best of international cinema in Singapore. SFS is renowned and popular for its leading-edge programming and organisational skills in film festival management and marketing. Some of SFS' key events include the annual Singapore Chinese Film Festival, European Union Film Festival and MINDS Film Festival. The mission statement of the Singapore Film Society has been to promote film appreciation as art and entertainment, in hopes to bridge the gap between art-house cinema and the commercial film industry.
